

As a result of its recent study of ambulance fees followed by discussion and consensus by its members, the League of Women Voters of Montgomery County announces its new position as of October 6, 2010:

The League of Women Voters of Montgomery County supports an emergency transport fee for Montgomery County providing it contains at least the following components:

- a) an extensive public education program
- b) provisions for tracking and evaluation of the program
- c) clear description of the fee structure and distribution of monies
- d) care and transportation without regard to income or insurance
- e) waivers for those unable to pay fees

Sincerely,
Elaine Apter and Diane Hibino, Co-Presidents
